Hello Eric,

Amanda and I made the last edits based on Mike's input this afternoon. I have put a placeholder in the product table for now for Chris' DER piece. He's expecting secondary review back tomorrow. While I was hoping to be off tomorrow, I will probably log in at some point to see if the review has been finished. If so, I'll put in the missing piece into the table so we can send the completed RA to Bob and Rick by COB.
